

MS FREDERIC CHOPIN

This sister-ship of the MS KATHARINA VON BORA, built in 2002, offers an unforgettable experience. The comfortable furnishings of the cabins and public areas promote a real and immediate sense of well-being. The cosy Panorama Restaurant offers a mouth-watering combination of regional specialities and international cuisine. The Sun Deck offers stunning views of the lovely landscapes along the rivers Elbe and Oder. The evenings are rounded off stylishly with a piano recital in the Lounge.

The cabins

All passengers are accommodated in stylish, well-appointed outside cabins. On the Upper Deck all cabins have a French balcony – ie full length, opening panoramic windows. Main Deck cabins have non-opening windows. The two bed cabins give around 12 m² of space, whereas the Deluxe cabins offer some 13 m². The single cabins provide an area of 9 m². All cabins have individual climate controls, shower and WC, hairdryer, music channel and satellite-TV. There is also a safe, minibar and telephone. The double cabins have either a double bed (1,50 m x 2,00 m) or two lower beds, one of which can be converted into a sofa for daytime use. The Deluxe cabin 201 has a sofa bed and a fixed bed, whilst the De Luxe cabin 202 has a double bed (1,50 m x 2,00 m). The single cabins all have a fixed lower sofa bed.

Facilities on board

Panorama Restaurant, Panorama Lounge with Bar, Foyer with Reception Desk, Shop, Sun Deck with awning and sunshades, loungers, chairs and tables.

First Aid

A doctor is within easy reach ashore.

Restaurant / Cuisine

The elegant Panorama Restaurant can seat all passengers at a single sitting. After embarking you can reserve your table for the whole duration of the cruise. Our friendly team will offer you excellent service. The menus include tasty international cuisine plus German specialities – all served by our attentive staff.

On-board Programme

Themed evenings, quizzes, bingo and live music ensure that no-one is bored. There is also a supply of books, cards and board games.

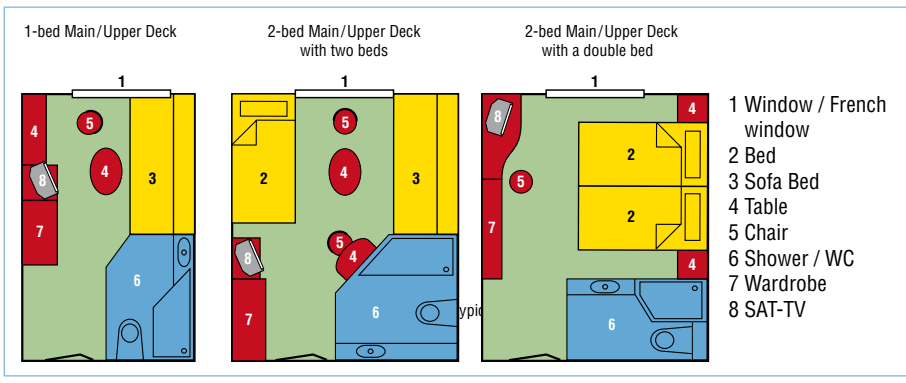

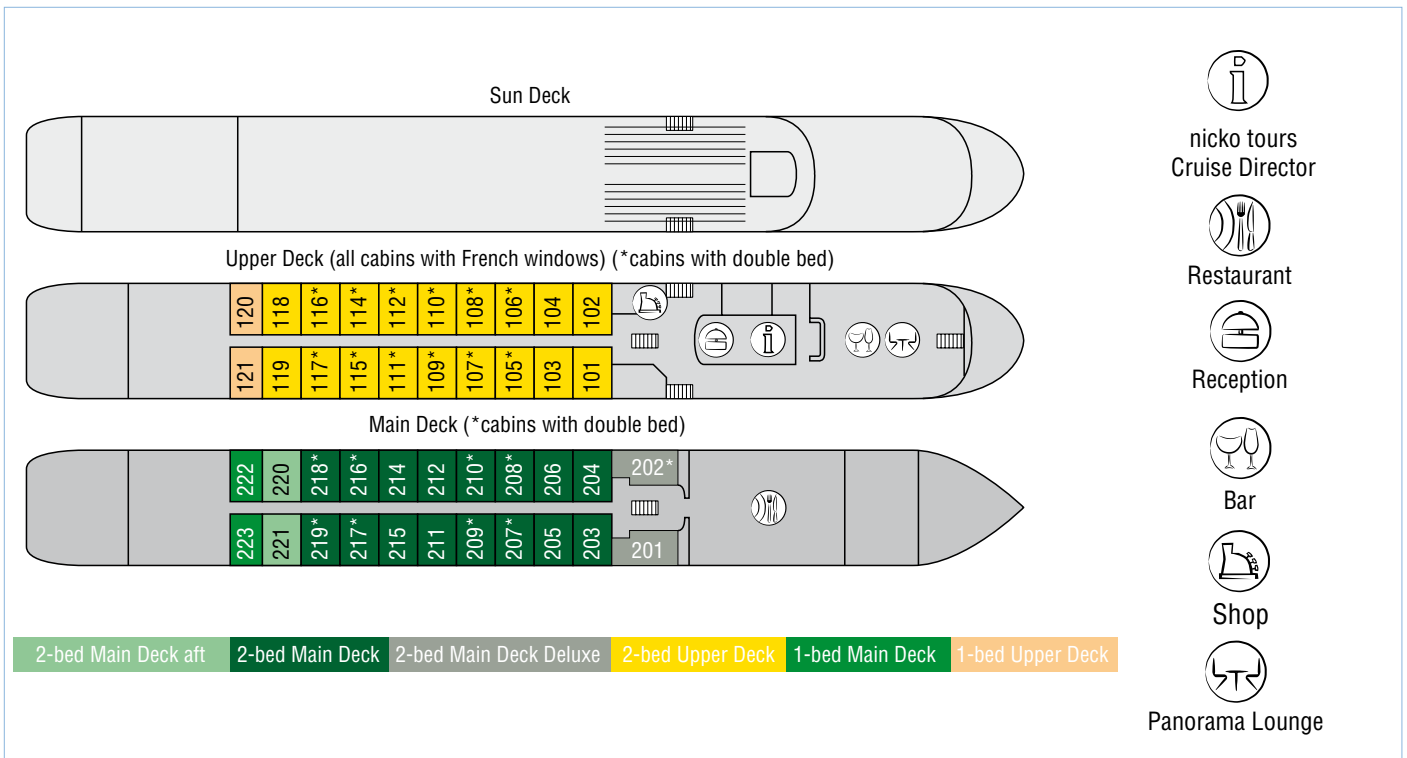

Payment on board

The on-board currency is the Euro. At the end of the cruise you can pay either in cash or using your credit card (Mastercard, VISA). Excursions booked on board must be paid for in cash (Euro).

Life on board

The atmosphere on board is informal. We recommend smart casual dress – a pullover for cooler evenings and stout footwear for excursions ashore. Please dress a little more smartly for Dinner. Our Cruise Team is happy to provide aid and advice throughout your stay on board. This is a non-smoking vessel (smoking is permitted only on the Sun Deck).
