

Music Gala at Sea

Voyage 298 September 18 - October 1, 2008

SHARON KAM
Clarinet

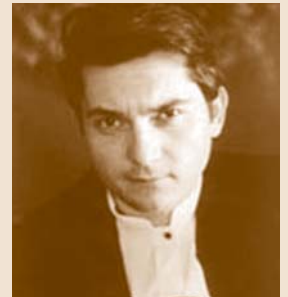

is a graduate from Julliard and plays classical, modern and jazz music. This talented artist has performed for the Israeli Philharmonic Orchestra.

The Württemberg Chamber Orchestra Heibronn will delight the senses as you enjoy recitals and concerts they perform for you on-board the MS Deutschland. This award-winning orchestra collaborates with renown artists and also supports young musical talent. Ruben Gazarian is the conductor.

As part of the program, we will offer special theme nights on-board. This extraordinary international musical program is provided to you at no additional cost to the price of your cruise. In each port of call, enjoy an "English Language Only"

Shore Excursion as our guest.

JOSE MARIA GALLARDO
Guitar

is celebrated throughout the world for his brilliant interpretations and extraordinary technique. He performs opera, classical, jazz and flamenco pieces.

CLAUDIO BOHORQUEZ
Cello

performs with an impressive array of internationally acclaimed orchestras. He has won numerous music awards.

HARRY WHITE
Saxophone

has a very distinctive and unique style. He has played with famous orchestras all over the world.

CAROLYN SAMPSON
Soprano

is an expressive and versatile soprano. Her repertoire ranges from the Passions by Bach to the Messiah by Handel.

ALEXANDER SITKOVETSKY
Violin

is an extraordinary violinist who has performed in France, Belgium and the St. James Palace in London.

KATARZYNA MYCKA
Marimba

has won numerous awards at international competitions. She is also founder of the international Katarzyna Mycka Marimba Academy.

ERNO FEHER
Piano

is a talented pianist with impressive performance skills. He has played concerts in Japan and Hungary.